Hope is planted seed in fertile ground that bears fruit,
in the land of my heart the plant of despair never grows, the cry of the silent by the flame of love ascends and the heavens listen to the heart-wishes of the sincere.

Molana Salaheddin Ali Nader Angha

Seven Advices of Mevlana Rumi

1. In generosity and helping others, be like a river.
2. In compassion and grace be like the sun.
3. In concealing others' faults, be like the night.
4. In anger and fury be like one who is dead.
5. In modesty and humility, be like the earth.
6. In tolerance, be like a sea.
7. Either exist as you are, or be as you look.

Indoor Soccer Competition Finals

The MTO Sufi Association UNSW Indoor Soccer Tournament came to a nail biting end with the MTO Sufi Association team playing against the number 1 positioned team in this years ladder the Hong Kong Society.

The thrilling game was very close where in the first half both teams were neck and neck (1-1), however the experienced Hong Kong society came through with 2 more goals to close the championship with a win ousting the former champions from their title.

On behalf of the MTO Sufi Association, we would like to thanks every team for participating in this years tournament, with special congratulations to the Hong Kong Society of UNSW.

We look forward to seeing new mixed teams for next years competition, where for further information to register your team, you can email Sam on
